

Tenzor International Cup 2022: New dates, new teams, live broadcasts and accommodation for participants

The organizers of the "Tenzor International Cup 2022" continue to prepare for the start of the Series. Over the past week, the technical services of the yacht-club Tenzor Sailing Club, which is the base of the Series, have done a lot of work on preparing the fleet, launching it, and first tests. There is also a planned preparation of the judges' boats and ribs, which will ensure the work of the judges' team, as well as the safety and installation of the race distance.

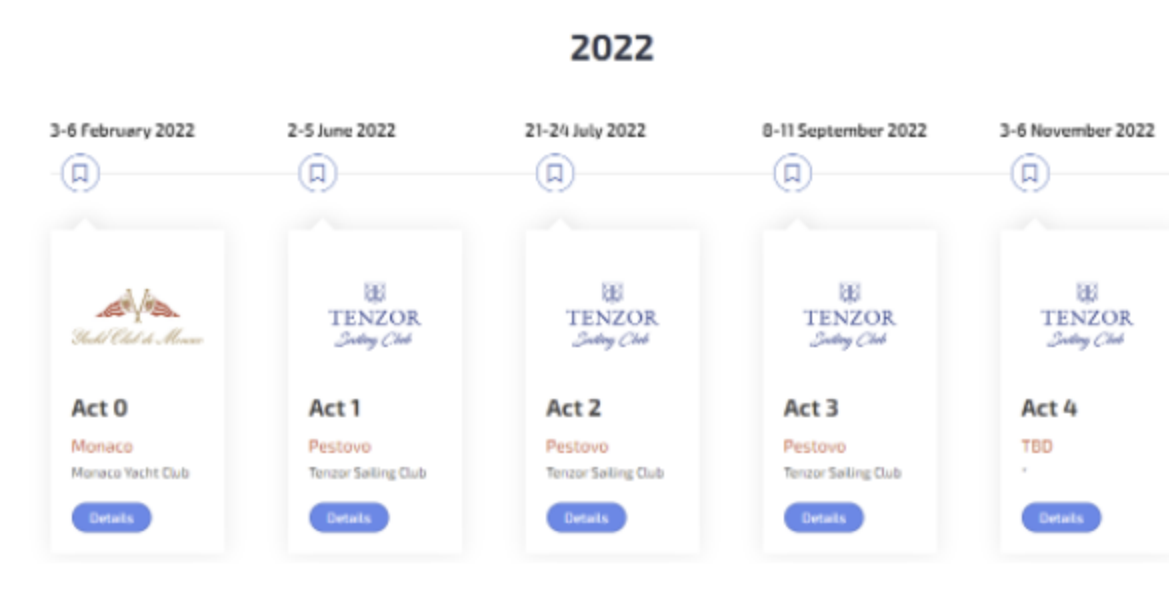

In our review we introduce you the last news.

New dates approved for Stage 2 and Stage 3

The organizing Committee of the Tenzor International Cup 2022 took into account the requests received from the announced teams and considered the possibility of postponing the dates of the Stage 2 and Stage 3 of the series, which overlap with the dates of the Russian Championship in the SB20 class and the Russian Championship in the J/70 class.

After preliminary agreement with the judging panel, as well as Russian Sailing Federation and Sailing Federation of the Moscow region, we inform you about the replacement of dates according to the following schedule:

STAGE	OLD	NEW
2	28-31 of July 2022	21-24 of July 2022
3	30 of September – 02 of October 2022	8-11 of September 2022

PAVETRA team confirmed its participation in TIC-22

The PAVETRA team of Andrey Bratan, Sergey Desyukevich, Ilya Strakh and Anna Bogomolova are determined to maintain and increase the positive dynamics of their sailing successes in the 2022 season.

The crew helmsman Andrey Bratan in the interview with the press service of TIC-22 noted that the 2021 season for his team turned out to be successful and bright. At the European Championships in Copenhagen PAVETRA took first place in the "Silver Fleet". And the first in his career 600-miles offshore regatta - the Rolex Middle Sea ended with an excellent ninth result among 26 teams.

Andrey Bratan: «The 2022 season is still difficult to plan, but all the stages of the Tenzor International Cup are in our schedule. Last year there was a task to fight for the "top-10", respectively, we will fight for the "top-9" this year. We will gain experience in small steps and move forward.

The water area of the Pestovsky reservoir is not familiar to us. I have never raced there. As the previous season showed, it is important for our team to study the features of the water area. That's what we plan to do at the Pestovsky reservoir after the May holidays. We will develop a training schedule with the team in order to explore the water area and perform well in the Tenzor International Cup season!

The Organizing Committee of Tenzor International Cup 2022 is pleased to announce the cooperation with Alexey Zhirov and his professional team MediaCrew in the 2022 season.

Media coverage of the Tenzor International Cup 2022 stages will include live broadcasts, review stories and programs, as well as highlights of each regatta.

The most famous voice of sailing in Russia, the author and presenter of the program "Sailing" on MATCH TV, a member of the Presidium of the Russian Sailing Federation, the head and ideologist of numerous media projects in sailing - Alexey Zhirov will work for you in the waters of the Pestovsky reservoir, commenting on the bright battles and spectacular moments of each regatta!

See you at the regattas of the Tenzor International Cup 2022 series!
